GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The Montgomery Handicap, next to the Tennessee Derby the principal event of the Memphis meeting, has fifty-four entries this year, against forty-three in 1898. It embraces nearly all the available handicap horses of the west and can hardly fail to result in a deeply interesting contest. The entries and ages are as follows:

A San Francisco dispatch says: "Several owners were punished during the last meeting at Oakland for the inconsistent running of their horses. The Boesecke brothers were not ruled off the Oakland track, but the entry of their horse Casper will be refused in future on account of his sudden improvement. The same action was taken by the California Jockey Club officials in the case of H. L. Haskell's bay colt Elidad. It is getting to be a hard matter to determine when a horse has been 'doped.' The old style has passed and gone. Capsules are now given horses needing 'artificial speed,' and there is still another new method that infuses vigor into the equine 'dope fiends.' Often the judges feel certain that animals have joined the 'dope' brigade, appearing wet with perspiration and their limbs being as nimble as those of a two-year-old. They go out and win at long odds just as Myth did Saturday. Then for lack of evidence the entry of the animal that recovers his speed so suddenly is refused."

Last Wednesday's San Francisco Chronicle tells a story about "The Dutchman" Schreiber, that has the true ring. It says: "Barney Schreiber has a hard luck story. He holds the world's record for finishing second in a stated period and in consequence has faded away from 220 to 200 pounds. Yesterday he thought that both his horses, Ulm and Good Hope, had a great chance. He bet on both of them and lost. This had a demoralizing effect on his judgment, so he made up his mind that he would let Jerry Hunt run for the purse and finally bet one hundred each way on Dunpraise. Jerry Hunt proved the easiest kind of a winner and all the way over on the boat Barney dilated upon the uncertainty of racing."

"Col." Lum Simons has leased a track at Louisville and announces that his outlaw meeting will surely begin February 15. It is a pestiferous project solely for "foreign book" gambling. American Racing rule 208, which reads: "Each member of the Congress shall do all in his power to prevent telegraph companies from sending entries or betting in races run on the Congress tracks to any poolroom owned by any outlaw, or to any racetrack on which a foreign book or poolroom is operated," will be used strictly in the effort to stop his project.

CARTER MEMORIAL FUND.

In the first five days of subscription to the Carter Memorial Fund $420 was sent in. The list is as follows:

F H Brunell, Chicago, $25; Barney Schreiber, St. Louis, $25; William Hendrie, Hamilton, Canada, $25; R T Holloway, Lexington, Ky., $25; John Morrow, $25; W H Jackson, $100; W O Parmer, $25; J G Greener, $25; B M McKinney, $5; J W Russwurm, $25; Harry D Nichol, $5; C A Fuller, $5; Nat F Dortch, $5; John H Moore, $5; Albert J Ewing, $10; Wm Ratterman, $5; Thomas W Chadwell, $5; Felix K Mitchell, $5; L C Garrabrant, $10; Wm Cummings, $10; C H Gillock, $25; Maj. George B Guild, $10; Robert T Burns, $5; Thomas J Slowey, $5; Finley Dorris, $5. Total, $420.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The veteran trainer, Dan Dennison, has arrived at Ingleside course with twelve horses, including Chappie, the three-year-old Gualala, and the Suburban Handicap winner Montana, by Ban Fox. Montana has been leased to a Fresno county breeder, and will be taken to that part of the state as soon as he is rested up. Most of the horses in Mr. Dennison's hands are two-year-olds bred at Marcus Daly's Bitter Root Farm, but belonging to Miles Finlen and Isaac Morehouse of Butte, Mont. Their trainer thinks there are several winners in the bunch, and as he is a very careful and conscientious horseman the Montana youngsters should be heard from shortly.—San Francisco Examiner.

At Rancho del Paso the dams of two celebrated racehorses will be destroyed this week. Explosion, the dam of Dew Drop, and Plaything, the dam of Tournament, have served their usefulness and are doomed to die. It is the custom of this famous ranch to destroy its senile stock. Rancho del Paso breeds on too extensive a scale to allow every horse to die from old age.

The wired folly from New Orleans about jockeyism will cause the death of a boy or two before the meeting closes. It has already done a lot of damage. The same folly puts John J. O'Neill upon a steamer bound for Japan, when the facts fix him in San Francisco.

Five carloads of horses left New Orleans Saturday to participate in the meeting at Tampa, Florida. It is said Mr. Plant or his agent made very easy terms by which they could get to Tampa, but none at all by which they are to get away.

The stallion Isaac Murphy, by Virgil—Mary Howard, has been sold to John Reed, of Higginsville, Mo. It is said that the removal of the horse to Missouri will leave Hindoo the only son of Virgil doing stud service in Kentucky.

Little Devin has perforce joined the list of down for thirty-day boys at San Francisco, the judges at Oakland having suspended him for rough riding on Colonel Dan last week.

Burns & Waterhouse weigh every horse in their stable on the first of the month. By studiously adhering to this system they can tell exactly how their runners are doing.

W. O. Parmer and J. W. Russwurm of Nashville, Tenn., are about to take a trip to Havana with the rumored purpose of looking up a site for a racetrack.

The Northern Circuit will be conducted on the same lines as last year with meetings at Highland Park, Fort Erie, Montreal and Windsor.

"Pittsburg Phil" and trainer Chas. Hughes are the latest additions to the New Orleans talent.

Winner—B. c. by Riley—Hinda. Start good. Won in a gallop. Corsini outclassed the field and won as he chose. Is a good colt and has class and a leaning towards soft going. Tirade ran his race. The going suited him. It did not fit in with El Estro. She is best on a fast track. San Augustine isn't of much account. Anne Page hates mud. Strongoli's race can be thrown out. He is good. Watch him. Scratched—Lavator, 107; Rosebeau, 112; Don't Tell, 112; Jingle Jingle, 117; Doremus, 117; Ballista, 122. Corsini, place, 7 to 10; show, 1 to 3. Tirade, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Time: 2:26.

Winner—Ch. h. by Falsetto—Cinderella. Start good. Won easily. Ferrier has improved greatly in jumping and will be hard to beat in hurdle races from now on. Major S. ran a consistent race and is a good mud horse. Monita was a bit short and will be improved by his race. He is a good jumper on any sort of track. Silverado is uncertain. San Carlos does not amount to much. Major Hooker is green at the jumping game but will be useful with more schooling. Joe Cotton showed well for part of the journey and will do to watch. Scratched—Durwad, 138. Ferrier, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Major S., place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Monita, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g. by Luke Blackburn—Maud Ward. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Hugh Penny was the best and luckiest. He is in rare form and ran over the field on call. Imperious ran a very good race. He was away in a tangle and closed a lot of ground—after some interference—in the stretch. The going suited him. Survivor ran an honest race. The weight settled him. Lord Marmion is best on fast going. He had speed, but stopped. Watch him on good going. He is fit. Casdale is good, but was outclassed. Midlight is at her best. Was in the wrong place and badly ridden. Judge Wofford is a stayer among his own kind. Scratched—Lady Britannic, 98; Captive, 105. Hugh Penny, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Imperious, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Survivor, show, 1 to 2. Lord Marmion, show, 4 to 5. Midlight, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. f. by Dundee—Right Wing. Start good. Won quite easily. Wing was much the best and appears to be a very good filly. Credo ran an honest race under inferior handling and runs well in heavy going. The Last does not fancy over five furlongs. Joe Mussel was closing at the finish. He is high in flesh and will do better. Zorrazo was also short and will do to watch. The others are bad horses. Credo, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. The Last, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Glen Elm—Red Girl. Start good. Won easily. Red Glenn outclassed his field at the distance and in the going. It was very easy for him. Stamina is a stayer. He closed up a lot of ground and was running strongly at the end. Lady Hurst ran as if short and was not well handled. Myth ran another bad race and should always be watched. Martello was outclassed. Stamina, place, evens. Lady Hurst, show, 1 to 2.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

"Col." Lum Simons, of Louisville, has been to Cincinnati to interview assistant secretary
Dillon in regard to securing some sort of Turf Congress sanction for his proposed track at Louisville, which is to be devoted to winter
racing, and, more particularly, a foreign book.
He was informed that if his track was less than a full mile, if racing was carried on over it during the months of December, January and February, or if at any time a "foreign" book was conducted within its boundaries, "Col." Lum
and all associated with him in the enterprise, would be straightway outlawed. To this he is said to have declared that he was determined to carry out his scheme, outlawry or no outlawry, but he will probably think differently
after due reflection.

W. B. Jennings will take back to New York
from California next spring a powerful stable, and if ill luck does not befall him he will make a grander record than he did last year. In addition to the string which he had with him last season, he will take Osculation, Saintly, Ven-toro, Hiero, The Light and Hemera. Henry Byrnes raced the new comers in Montana last summer, winning numerous races with them.
Soon after he shipped back from the north they were taken from him by Mr. Haggin and put in the charge of Mr. Jennings. Though Briar Sweet is entered in the Brooklyn Handicap, she will not start. The Brooklyn is run too early to enable him to fit his sweet mare properly. Mr. Jennings will not be ready to race at New York until the Gravesend meeting opens.

The San Francisco Chronicle calls attention to the unusual circumstance that no less than seven holders of world's running records are now at the Oakland track. They are Howard 5 1-2 furlongs in 1:06; O'Connell and Mary
Black, 3-4 of a mile each, in 1:12; Mamie Scott, 7 1-2 furlongs, in 1:33; Libertine, 1 mile, in 1:38; David Tenny, 1 1-4 miles, in 2:04 and Buckwa, 2 1-4 miles, in 3:51.

Eugene Leigh has bought back from Milton
Young that part of La Belle Farm purchased by the latter at Leigh's sale in 1897. It is one hundred acres in extent with good training stables, track and other appurtenances of a high class training farm. Leigh sold it for $101 per acre and bought it back for $125.

Imp is reported to be doing extremely well in her winter quarters at Chillicothe, O., while pleased. Mary Black ran her race, but was beaten before the homestretch was reached. Jinks was running fast and making up ground at the finish. Smyle was a joke in such company.

ern campaign has been mapped out for the very speedy black mare. If all goes well she will almost surely start in the Suburban.
